REGULATORY ARENA

4.6 GW of new renewables projects are expected by December 2028 in Italy. Should Italy's MACSE (Mechanism for the Acquisition of Storage Capacity) prioritise stability through long-term procurement systems or should they allow for market volatility and flexibility to attract a more diverse pool of investment? Initial focus for MACSE tenders are focused on southern Italy. Will this cause a regional imbalance in energy storage development? Federico Cardini, Country Manager - Uniper Renewables Italy, Uniper Elena Macchi, Team Head Legal Italy, Aquila Capital Salvatore Casa, Partner, Elemens Alessandro Ceschiat, General Manager, Italy, Enfinity Global

Alessandro Ceschiat, General Manager, Italy, Enfinity Global Moderator: Simone Cadeddu, Partner, Bird & Bird

FINANCING THE ENERGY TRANSITION: ITALY

How are financial institution weighing up technology risk with bankability? What steps can be done from a lender and developers perspective to minimise risks? Which lessons can be taken away from more mature European markets?
